Welcome to all of you who are here to “sail” and to discover our new website, it has been thought and made to find in an easy and enjoyable way, all information you need.

This web site has been created not only because “everyone has a website” but to explain who we are and what we do. Well... we are part of Un Vero Sorriso and we have an ambitious medium / long-range plan to support scientific research that works to find a cure to a rare disease.

Put together private and charitable support with the incredible involvement of people that works to give a future to children less fortunate than others is our aim. At the same time Un Vero Sorriso became a big family where card-carrying members, friends and people involved interact with us, with our office, with co-workers, with the volunteers and with members.

Everyone calls, asks, takes part and suggests. We usually meet to have lunch or dinner together... talking, suggesting ideas and smiling. A “marketing expert”, when I was in the United States, suggested me to take off pictures of smiling children and people from the website and from leaflets.

On the contrary, I strongly believe that to stay together with a true smile (literal translation of “Un Vero Sorriso”) is the best way to work. especially in a so difficult and painful field. We will smiling and dreaming carry on our work, because a winner is who simply never gave up dreaming
